THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1869.

GUILT ITS OWN BETRAYER.

There is no saying more trite or true than that murder will out;" "guilt is its own betrayer." Murder and robbery are sure to be found out; there is no hiding place where they can be secreted in silence and safety.

Webster, in the great Knapp trial for murder said, "Providence hath so ordained, and doth so govern things, that those who break the great laws of Heaven seldom succeed in avoiding discovery."

It has been known from their first coming, that Littlefield and the carpet-bag invaders had inaugurated a system of public plunder, through the means of bribery and corruption. Littlefield was the head center of corruption; around him the corrupt all now gather, they drink his wine, they eat his bread, they receive his presents, they subscribe to his paper. He bought property of some in power, at fabulous prices. For the Standard and its worn out type and press, he paid the Governor $20,000.—To Senator Lassiter, of the Penitentiary Committee, he paid $20 an acre for land disgracefully and pitiably poor; he lent a bankrupt member $1,200 without security; he made presents of gold watches, gold headed canes, and diamonds. In the very portals of the Capitol he spent $10,000 for liquors and wines for members. You can read no roguery in this man's face, no sense of crime or shame in his eye; he is the best looking man of his party and thinks himself as honest as any man in it, which may be true, but we have no time now to discuss that question.

Suspicion, is upon him, the eye of every man of the city, aye, of the State, is upon him; nothing hinders, delays or embarrasses him in his operations; a lumber dealer and lobbyist by profession, he sticks close to his business. As good a Judge of men as he is of lumber, he can tell who's rotten and who's sound.

Twice only has he been in danger of detection; once from Senator Sweet and his Legislative committee on bribery and corruption; his paper denounced the Senator as a liar, coward, corrupt and base man; but that Senator is now on friendly terms with the great corrupter, takes his paper and has a large contract to grade the road of which he is President.

Senator Sweet, under the upright standard of justice, and the unspotted banner of truth, had the mastery once; he made the corrupter fly as for life from the city; he made his accomplices fly with him. The chief, Judge Alden, of Governor Holden's reconstruction staff, concealed for the night by a carpet-bagger, fled at day dawn for Camp Lee. The triumph of Sweet was sublime, it was a triumph of justice and truth over venality and public corruption. But it did not intimidate, it did not embarrass, it only delayed, the courage of the corrupter was not broken, his prudence was not conquered, his cunning was not defeated. When the committee to investigate his villainy was discharged, he returned and was, and is, cordially restored to Executive confidence, and the Executive arms. The Governor looks upon him as a persecuted puritan; a union man set upon by rebels!

Since the Grand Jury presented him, the Governor has given and bestowed upon him the office of State printer, by which he makes $100,000; he has made him President of the Western N. C. R. R., by which he knew would go into his hands and control millions of money belonging to the State. We tell the Governor, his friend, the great corrupter is no longer the cynosure of all eyes; the people begin to look at the Governor with as much suspicion as they did at your friend, the corrupter, two years ago. You are now giving secretly your influence to the infamous bill drawn by Victor Barringer, and introduced by Senator Lassiter, of the Penitentiary Committee, which bill will operate to delay investigation in the frauds which, you know, and have talked of, are going on in connection with State bonds and Railroad projects. If Littlefield were honest, he would go before the Legislature and demand an investigation forthwith; if you go through this transaction as you have started, saying nothing, secretly advocating a bill which delays investigation of fraud, you may expect to be placed on the same platform with Littlefield and the Governor of Florida.

The net of circumstances in which you will find yourself entangled, will prove you actually to be, what suspicion now looks upon you to be, the "main spring of the Ring." You can have Littlefield removed as President of the Railroad in fifty-six hours; you can have the alledged fraud, in which he is implicated, investigated in ten days as well as you could in ten months, as the bill which you advocate proposes.

Do one of two things, Governor; quit your reticence, when you know frauds are being perpetrated, and speak out; discontinue your intimacy with the great corrupter, or play the Victor Hugo. Everybody will remember, when his son Charles was indicted and arraigned at the bar of his country, as a culprit, the father stood up like a man and said, "Gentlemen of the Jury, if there is a culprit here it is not my son, it is myself, it is I; I have committed this crime for which my son is now arraigned. Here I denounce myself, Mr. Attorney General, I have committed it deliberately, repeatedly, tenaciously."

When the railroad property of the State is sold, and its Treasury plucked, objects for which Littlefield has been and is assiduously at work, if he should be arraigned, can't you stand up and say, will you not be obliged to say, "if there is a culprit here it is not Littlefield, it is I; I knew of the charges and suspicions against him; I was aware of his atrocious actions in the bribery business, his efforts to corrupt the Legislative branch of the government; I knew of the charge that Western railroad bonds had been sold and the proceeds misapplied, yet I made this man President of the road, thus placing in his hands the power and the means of perfecting his fraudulent schemes." If you should fall in magnanimity to make this avowal, when the time comes, you may rely on it, Governor, the people will make it for you.

ELECTED FOR FOUR YEARS AND FOUR MONTHS.

The Legislature have not yet resolved to hold over for four years, but have modestly referred the question to the Supreme Court to say whether they shall do so or not.—Three of the Judges would like to be Senators one of them is out boldly electioneering for the place, and says if the election had come off on Tuesday last he would have been elected. This member of the Court has prejudged the question, he is for referring the question to the Court (to himself in otherwords.) The Chief Justice said, time and again last winter, that the Legislature could not hold over, there is only one Senator to elect. If the two other aspirants for Abbott's Senatoral robes find that one of their associates has this Legislature pledged they may not be in a state of mind to give an opinion to perpetuate the body. So taking a Littlefield view of the question, the Court may decide against the Legislature holding over. Let us examine the question with Judicial and not political eyes. Section 3d Article II of the Constitution declares, "The Senate shall be composed of fifty Senators biennially chosen by ballot."

Section VI declares, "The House of Representatives shall be composed of one hundred and twenty Representatives biennially chosen by ballot." The 39th section of the Constitution declares, "The election for members of the General Assembly shall be held for the respective districts and counties, at the places where they are now held, or may be directed hereafter to be held, in such manner as may be prescribed by law, on the 1st Thursday in August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, (1870) and every two years thereafter. But the General Assembly may change the time of holding the election. The first election shall be held when the vote shall be taken on the ratification of this Constitution by the voters of the State, and the General Assembly then elected shall meet on the 15th day after the approval thereof by the Congress of the United States, if it fall not on Sunday, but if it shall so fall, then, on the next day thereafter, and the members then elected, shall hold their seats until their successors are elected at a regular election."

The present members were elected in April, 1868. Governor Holden, Senator Pool, Judge Settle, Victor Barringer and a few other unscrupulous tricksters, are trying to persuade Cuffy Mayo and ignorant members, that biennial means once in four years and four months. Cuffy is no scholar, linguist or logician, and therefore he can't understand it, and he refers the question to the Supreme Court.

Read the 29th section of the Constitution, again, it is commanding, "the election shall be held on the first Thursday in August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy." Cuffy can't understand how to get over that mandatory order of the Constitution and therefore he allows Judge Settle to settle the question for him. The question is too plain for argument.—Governor Holden has been for holding over as he was for the lease, but we predict the Governor will act the act of the lease again, now that his Son Jo's preceptor, Judge Settle, has, as the boys say, "pledged all the votes."

Senator Sweet was sternly, uncompromisingly opposed to holding over, and yet says he will resign even if the Court decide that the Legislature can hold over. Senator Sweet would have appeared in a better attitude if he had not made the motion or offered the resolution to refer the question to the Court.

Senator Wilson, Republican says "no honest man could hold over, even if the court should decide he could, for the people elected no one member with the view of his holding for four years."

We say let the people hold meetings in every county of the State and express themselves to the Legislature and the Court.—We venture the assertion that no one man can be found in the whole borders of the State who voted with the view or thought that he was electing a representative for four years and four months.

ROBERT C. KEHO.

There is so much corruption going on that it would take "two papers, both daily," to name, denounce and keep up with it. We asked, months ago, who Robert C. Keho was; we know this much, he is a carpet-bagger; living in Newbern. He filed an injunction against the Atlantic and Ohio Railroad Company. Dewese, our member of Congress, is thought to have had such a bill in contemplation for the purpose of levying black mail of that corporation. Judge Watts granted the injunction, and then dissolved it. Did anybody make money by the operation?

We expect to ventilate this injunction affair, the Plaintiff, the Judge, Dewese and Company.

We shall also, inquire if Judge Watts has any State bonds for sale.

They use "giant gunpowder" to fish with in Nevada. A cartridge loaded with the powder, to which a slow match is attached, is exploded under water, the concussion killing all the fish within a radius of thirty feet, and their bodies rise to the surface.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Beall: A bill concerning the Probate Registeration of Deeds, and other instruments.

By Mr. Brogden: A bill to protect the title of unsold town lots and other Public property. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill introduced by Mr. Lassiter from the Code Commission to investigate the affairs of the several Railroad Companies, was taken up and amended, by directing the Superintendent of Public Works to make said investigation, and passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Davis, its further consideration was postponed at present, the bill as amended was ordered to be printed and made the special order for to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

Bill to abolish the Special Court in the city of Wilmington came up, on motion of A. H. Galloway (col.) its further consideration was postponed for two weeks.

On motion of Mr. Brogden the rules were suspended and the bill to protect the sheriffs of certain counties, was taken up. This bill suspends the collection of tax on the Wilmington & Weldon Rail Road, until the constitutionality of said tax is ascertained.

Mr. Jones of Wake moved to amend so as to extend the same privileges to the sheriffs of Halifax, Warren, Franklin and Wake counties, so far as taxes due by the R. & Gaston R. R. Company are concerned, which was lost, and the bill was rejected.

CALENDAR.

Resolution requesting the Representatives of this State in Congress to use their influence to secure the Loan of $1,000,000, to be appropriated in the purchase of lands, to be divided into farms of 20 acres each, for those who are unable to furnish homes for themselves.

A. H. Galloway (col.) moved to amend by inserting after "20 acres of land," "AND A MULE," which was lost.

Mr. Lassiter, moved to amend by inserting after "$1,000 000," "or its equivalent in Public lands" which prevailed, and the resolution was adopted.

Resolution proposing to raise a Joint Committee to take into consideration the burthens of taxation, and to report some measure for the relief of the people.—Adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Report of the Special Committee to revise the Senate rules of order was taken up, amended and adopted.

On motion the Senate adjourned until to morrow at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Nov. 25th, 1869.

House met pursuant to adjournment.

Leave of absence granted Messrs. White, Foster, Sinclair and Hayes.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, for Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably on bill to repeal tax on tobacco.

Mr. Dixon for Committee on Salaries and Fees, favorably, with amendment, on bill compensating school Committee men—gives them $1, instead of $2, a day, while on duty, referred to Committee on Education.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Farrow: Resolution in favor of the tax collector of Hyde, and the Sheriff of Chatham. Lies over.

B. W. Morris, colored: Resolution to reduce per diem. Lies over.

Mr. Moore of Alamance: Resolution instructing Judiciary Committee to inquire what legislation is necessary for transfer of corporation stock sold under execution.—Lies over.

Mr. Rugland: Resolution to raise a Committee to report a bill for relief of the people. Lies over.

Mr. Painter: Resolution reducing per diem of members, and salaries and fees of county officers. Lies over.

Robbins, colored: Resolution in regard to working roads. Lies over.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, moved to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to concur yesterday in the Senate resolution, fixing per diem and mileage, and legalizing the payment of the same by the Treasurer.

Messrs. Hodgin, Vest, Ragland and Renfrow favored the motion.

Harris of Wake called the previous question, which was sustained, and his motion to reconsider was carried.

The question then being on concurrence, Mr. Pou demanded the yeas and nays, which was refused, when the motion to concur was adopted by acclamation.

Mr. Justice offered a resolution in favor of the Sheriffs of Rutherford and Polk counties. Lies over.

Mr. Morrill, declaring the place of Engrossing Clerk, held by James O'Hara, (col) vacant.

Harris of Wake moved its reference to the committee on Propositions and Grievances, not agreed to.

He then moved to suspend the rules in order that the resolution be discussed. He remarked that he did not see why O'Hara was singled out because he held an office under the general government, when there were several members of the General Assembly in the same predicament.

The motion to suspend was agreed to, and after considerable debate, the resolution was laid on the table.

Mr. Harris of Franklin introduced a bill to amend chap. 1, sec. 4, title 19, C. C. P. Referred.

By Mr. Malone: A bill to amend the law in regard to Bastardy. Referred,

By Cuffee Mayo, a bill to divorce Jordan Trevan from his wife, Sallie Trevan. Referred.

By Mr. Smith of Alleghany: A resolution in regard to Justices of the Peace Referred.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS,

was then taken up. The resolution for the investigation of alleged frauds in the management of certain railroad, bonds introduced by Mr. Welch.

The question was on the substitute of Mr. Ellis, which had been accepted by Mr. Welch.

Harris of Wake, offered as a substitute of the whole, the bill introduced into the Senate yesterday by Mr. Lassiter, on the same subject.

Mr. Durham said he was in favor of Mr. Ellis' substitute because it named a committee, a majority of whom could not be bought. If the same course was pursued as in the last investigating committee, it would simply amount to a white washing affair, and he would move to lay the whole matter on the table. The people believe that corruption in its vilest form exists in the management of the bonds, and demand that this Legislature shall appoint a committee of irreproachable character to investigate the matter thoroughly. He favored the substitute of Mr. Ellis, because it looked toward an honest investigation, the other did not. He was opposed to all of these white-washing committees, &c.

Mr. Pou said the substitute amounted to simply nothing. He was in favor of the House investigating the matter in Committee of the whole; he thought the idea of naming the committee in the resolution was an insult to the presiding officers, was ridiculous as the rules specially allowed the House to name committees if it saw proper.

Mr. Moore of Chowan favored the substitute because it gave the Governor power to appoint the committee, and its rejection would be an insult to the Chief Executive.

Mr. Durham said he was satisfied a fair investigation was not going to be allowed; the proposition of Mr. Ellis was making members wince. It was to be presumed that the Governor would be satisfied with the men elected by Directors of his own appointment; therefore he was not the man to appoint the committee. He thought there were members on the floor who would move heaven and earth to prevent the investigation of these alleged frauds. If Mr. Ellis's proposition be defeated any committee that may be raised would simply amount to another white washing affair.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, advocates the adoption of his substitute in a long speech.

Mr. Pou next took the floor and while arguing against the substitute, a message was received from the Senate informing the House of the passage of a bill to further protect the interest of the State in certain Railroads and to require accountability on the part of their officers.

Mr. Pou resumed his remarks and favored the idea of an examination by the House in the Committee of the whole.

Mr. Malone said:

I call attention to this substitute—the first section creates a commission—yes, a commission—an office, this is in keeping with the past conduct of this Legislature, that is create offices. Another section gives them instructions to report by August 1870. Will this meet the anxious demand of a distressed people, calling for investigation into the conduct of our agents? Those who in good faith ask for an investigation, wish it done now—we want no delay—we want to know before we close this session. Another section gives the committee a clerk at five dollars per day.

There are other objections to this substitute, and I do not think that five men can be found in this House to vote for the creation of a magnificent office—with perpetual existence—equal at least to the Code Commission. Mr. Speaker, we want no more offices—but we want more good faith in the conduct of those entrusted with the destiny of North Carolina.

After some further debate, Isham Sweat (col.) arose and said, that $1,500,000 had been appointed to a Road in his section which he believed would never be built.

He was opposed to Harris' substitute and somewhat opposed to Mr. Ellis', because he thought that when matters pertaining to the State's interest involving millions of dollars, was being examined that the entire representation should have a hand in it.

He had at first favored Mr. Ellis' proposition, but now thought the idea of Mr. Pou a better one.

He agreed with Mr. Durham that a fair investigation could not be had by a committee appointed under the old mode.

Mr. Ladin moved to postpone and make the matter special for Tuesday next.

Mr. Welch said he had offered his resolution in the best spirit and not influenced by any partisan motive and the cry of Party! Party! It was a most flimsy pretext to defeat investigation. Republicans were making the matter a party measure, for they would have a majority in both branches of the proposed committee. They had a majority in both branches of this Legislature and they were responsible for these appropriations.

The Governor was charged with complicity with the "Ring," he (Mr. Welch) did not believe the charge yet it was openly charged, and therefore he (the Governor) could not with delicacy appoint the committee.

Mr. Welch then proceeded to give a sketch of the matters pertaining to the construction of the Western Division of the Western N. C. R. R. Notwithstanding the millions appropriated, money could not be had to pay the laborers and that unless money was forthcoming, work must stop.

Mr. Pou wished to know if the President of the Road had not visited the Road during the summer months?

Mr. Welch, I never heard of him West of Asheville.

Mr. Pou, surely he visited his Road at some time?

Mr. Welch, I never heard of him. The newly elected President was at Asheville when he was elected.

Mr. Pou, what salary does he get?

Mr. Welch, $2,500.

Mr. Welch then concluded his remarks by saying that this matter was raising a howl, somebody was getting scared and hurt and that every man who wished to investigate these frauds would support Mr. Ellis' proposition.

Mr. Hednett favored Mr. Ellis' proposition and opposed the motion to postpone in a speech of some length.

Mr. Vest moved to adjourn. Lost.

The question recurred upon Mr. Ladin's motion to postpone until Tuesday.

The yeas and nays being called the motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 1, nays 90.

Mr. Durham said it had been argued that if this substitute was rejected and Mr. Ellis' proposition was adopted, it would be an insult to the Governor, Superintendent of Public Works, and the presiding officers of the two Houses. Why if you allow the Governor to appoint, will it not offend the Superintendent of Public Works, will it not offend the Governor and so on with all of them.

Mr. Sinclair favored the substitute and opposed Mr. Ellis' measure.

After some further debate Mr. Pou moved to lay the whole matter on the table in order that he might have an opportunity of introducing a resolution to make the investigation, in committee of the whole. The motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 21, nays 86. (Here innumerable points of order were discussed, and a host of motions to adjourn made and rejected.)

Mr. Welch called the previous question. The call was sustained and the question recurred upon the substitute offered by Harris of Wake, (colored.) The yeas and nays being called resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Barnett, Blair, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Eagles, Ellington, Forkner, Foster, Gahagen, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hilliard, Hoffman, Horney, Hudgings, Justice, of Henderson, Kelly, or Moore, Kinney, Ladin, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, McCanless, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Proctor, Ragland, Ras, Renfrow, Reynolds, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Vest, Waldrop, and Williamson.—44.

The question recurred on the adoption of Mr. Ellis' proposition. The yeas and nays being called resulted in the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Banner, Barnes, Boddie, Candler, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Forshee, Gatling, Gibson, Gilbert, Grier, Hawkins, Hicks, Hilliard, High, Hodnett, Horney, Humphries, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Malone, Matheson, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Painter, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Stanton, Thompson, Welch, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett.—41.

NAYS.—Messrs. Mr. Pou offered a resolution, that the House, on and after Tuesday next at 2 o'clock, will resolve itself into the Committee of the whole, each day, to examine these alleged frauds.

Pending the consideration of the resolution, the House adjourned.

PROF. LEE'S LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Once more, and for the last time we can have an opportunity to do so, we call attention to the Lecture at Tucker Hall, to night, as formally announced in our advertising columns. Let all who can, turn out and extend a glowing welcome to Prof. Lee, the near relative of the great Southern chieftain. It will, in some sort, be honoring Gen. Lee, to honor his talented relative, who volunteers his services to aid in a cause that ought to be dear to all of us, and at the same time we shall honor ourselves in thus co-operating with our fair ladies, in the glorious work they have in hand.

We had a call yesterday from Col. W. F. Gray, connected with the Emigration and Passenger Department of a number of steamship and Railway lines in this country and Europe. The Colonel has been through most of the countries of Europe and has traveled throughout the United States and other parts of the American continent, which renders him very agreeable and instructive in conversation. He is now making a tour of the States, especially of the South and West, on matters connected with European immigration to this country; on which he has extra facilities for furnishing information His visit to this State is for the purpose of ascertaining the prices of land, &c., for information of parties in Europe who desire to come to this country and purchase homes.

LADIES FESTIVAL.—We mentioned some days since that the ladies of the Methodist congregation in this city intended giving a supper for the purpose of raising funds to effect some necessary repairs at the parsonage. Next Wednesday night is appointed as the time, and Tucker Hall the place of the feast, where the ladies will have a bountiful repast set out, consisting of a great variety of delicacies -oysters, turkey, chicken, ham, cakes, custards, syllabubs, and many other good things to tempt the appetite, all served in excellent style, and accompanied by the smiles of &c., &c.

A SUPERB TREAT.—Last night, about the time the telegraphic dispatches began to arrive, (which, by the way, were considerably cut down in consequence) a large waiter, covered with a napkin, arrived at our sanctum, the napkin covered a superb treat of oysters, put up in different styles, and accompanied by the necessary trimmings, all the way from Moseley's, at Fentress's corner, near Tucker Hall. These oysters were fine, fat, and luscious—real "Lynn Haven Bay pets"—the finest, in fact we have seen in Raleigh this season, and enough for all hands in the office. Moseley keeps them on hand all the time, and has his saloon arranged for the accommodation of ladies, who may there enjoy a "stew" or a "fry" without fear of disturbance.

ROBBING PREACHERS.—Some rogue entered the room of Bishop Doggett and Rev. Mr. Barringer, at Newbern, on Tuesday night, and robbed their trunks of about $200.

CONFERENCE.—The annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, opened in Newbern on Wednesday, Bishop Doggett presiding. Dr. B. Craven was elected Secretary. On the calling of the roll, 140 delegates answered to their names. Several prominent ministers are in attendance.

Valuable and Convenient.—"Brown's BRONCHIAL TROCHES" are widely know as an admirable remedy for Bronchitis, Hoarseness Coughs, and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs. They are of great value for the purposes for which they are designed, while they are usually and pleasantly efficacious, they contain no hurtful ingredients, but may at all times be used with perfect safety.—BOSTON RECORDER.

THE LOUISIANA EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.—This is one of the very best companies in the country. It has the endorsement of Bishop Wilmer, Gens. Beauregard, Hood, Harry Hays and the leading men of New Orleans. General Beauregard says: "Its Officers and Directors have been selected from our most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Instead of sending $40,000,000 annually North, our citizens can find better companies at home.

Joseph Ellison, President, New Orleans Louisiana.

Malarious Fogs

Countless millions of cubic feet of malarious vapor reek from the moist earth every twenty-four hours during the month of November. This evaporated moisture is the active principle which begets fever and ague, bilious remittents, indigestion, dysentery, bilious cholic, rheumatism, and many other ailments which prevail more generally in the Fall than at other seasons, and some of which, in low, swampy regions and new clearings, take the form of virulent epidemics The best safeguard against these complaints, as evidenced by the experience of a long series of years, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most pleasant and at the same time the most efficient of all vegetable tonics. The invigoration of the system is manifestly the best means of defending it against the causes of sickness, whether constitutional or casual. Nature, as every pathologist knows, is the most determined enemy of disease, and the paroxysms of an acute malady are in most instances the consequences of the efforts she makes to conquer the foe. The great object, therefore, of preventive treatment is to reinforce the system, and it is accomplished thoroughly, rapidly and safely, by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This powerful tonic contains also an aperient and corrective principle. It is no less valuable as a regulator and purifier than as an invigorant, and there is no danger of exciting the brain or over-stimulating the circulation by employing it as an antidote.

REMARKS OF MR. WELCH,

On introducing a resolution to raise a Committee to investigate alleged frauds in regard to Railroad bonds; delivered in the House of Commons, Nov. 24th.

My object, Mr. Speaker, in introducing these resolutions was explained upon their first reading in the House and before they were ordered to be printed. I desire, however, now that the members have had time for mature deliberation and before the final vote is taken, to speak more at large as to their merits and to present my views in relation to questions of public policy which more materially affect the interests of the State at this time than any other. "We have indeed fallen upon evil times." The very atmosphere around seems loaded with forebodings of ill. We are threatened with bankruptcy, with financial ruin. The times are pregnant with events well calculated to excite the anxious consideration of every individual who has at heart the welfare and honor of his country. In this great crisis 'tis highly important that we should cast about us and seek a remedy for this impending evil. The old Ship of State groans and labours 'mid the storm that howls around her. We are upon the edge of breakers over which we cannot pass with safety except our nerves be strong with a determination for action and our minds exercise the most perfect circumspection. The occasion calls for a display of consummate fortitude.

The resolutions explain themselves. The bonds of our State are suffering the most ruinous depreciation, and we desire to restore them to that appreciation which they have heretofore commanded. There must be some solution to this strange mystery.—Are not our people honestly and punctually paying every obligation which has been imposed upon them? 'Tis true taxation is heavier and more burdensome during the fiscal year which has just closed than ever before; but I have not heard a single complaint from any Sheriff in the State that the people refuse to pay their taxes. At the last session of this Assembly a bill was passed making provision for revenue amply sufficient, in the opinion of those whose business it was to make the calculation, to defray all the expenses of the government and to satisfy every demand against the State. The assessment was made and the collectors have been and are now busily engaged in receiving this money. Why, then has our credit sunk so low that our bonds are contemptuously hawked about in Wall Street and are said to stink in the nostrels of purchasers? This is an important question. Who is responsible? 'Tis not the people—they pay their debts, and Heaven knows the Legislature has been sufficiently extravagant in its exactions.—The fault lies somewhere. And it is our duty as Representatives to probe this mystery to the bottom. We must do it or bring upon ourselves the curses of an outraged people.

Charges have been made against the Presidents of our Railroads. 'Tis said that they have the manipulation of our funds and are responsible for their shameful depreciation. They have been charged with corruption in speculating in the State's money for their own private gain. Is it so? Can men be found here—Carolinians! either by birth or adoption—so lost to all the noble instincts of honor—so depraved, so filled with that accursed thirst for lucre as to engage in filching the last penny from the pockets of a starving people? There must be some mistake in this. These men must be deeply wronged. They should be more anxious for the passage of these resolutions than any other parties. And will they dare to protest against a fair investigation of their operations? I hope not.—If they have acted in good faith to the State they will not jeopardize their reputation by such opposition. They will rather hail with joy this fortunate opportunity to vindicate themselves from the damaging imputations which are daily being hurled against them.

Let us then as men with a proud consciousness of the purity and honesty of our intentions go boldly forward in this investigation. Let there be no laggards here. This battle must be fought. The fair name of our State requires this at our hands.—The people—the honest, hardfisted taxpayers loudly cry out for redress, and they will hold him to a strick accountability who flinches in this extremity from the discharge of his duty.

'Tis unfortunate, Mr. Speaker, that the men who have control of our bonds should be engaged in speculations in New York. Great panics are always more ruinous than real evils. Imaginary dangers are more dreaded than open perils. The men may be innocent, but their actions have excited suspicions that cannot be easily removed. The position they occupy excites a feeling of dissatisfaction. I would not do them injustice. They may all be honorable men. But sir, as a member of this House I feel called upon to press this investigation.—My constituents demand it. The people of the whole State demand it. They have submitted quietly to the payment of the interest on Railroad appropriations, but they demand a recompense and will be satisfied with nothing less. They were willing to shoulder the responsibility of building the State up with internal improvements, but they expected a return, a compensation in the increased value of their property, facilities for travel, communication with other sections of the country and a reasonable enlargement of their industrial resources.

At no period since the establishment of the government of the State of North Carolina have our finances been so crippled, or our bonds commanded so little respect in the markets of the world as at the present. And it is with feeling of pain that we contrast the once bright and enviable position of the old North State with her lamentable condition now. All around us are the signs of decay. But a few years ago she stood exalted by reason of her stern integrity with a name untarnished by dishonor unsullied by treachery—the admiration of States; now that fair name is a reproach—stunned, despised, detested. Why this terrible change! What foul hand has dared to stain her pure escutcheon! Her people have been bought and sold—those to whom, in her simplicity, she entrusted the helm when the storm threatened. Carolinians betrayed her.—Her own children have stabbed the poisoned dagger to her bosom and she bleeds at every pore. Yes sir, shameful as it may appear, her own sons struck the blow. And shall we, who have been selected from among all the people as guardians of her interest, shall we hesitate to fly to her rescue? Shall we through fear of party ostracism be deterred from the performance of our duty? Shall we crouch cowardly, like whipped spaniels, before the magnates of political juntas or monied rings, rather than incur their displeasure by doing justice to our people? Show me the man who would vote against these resolutions from such considerations and I will point you to one whose cheeks blush even now at the consciousness of his own infamy, a man so lost to virtue that the very city with which he is wrapped is polluted by an association with the spirit within.

The shameful mismanagement of our affairs is giving growth to a sentiment of repudiation which I am sorry to see. In my humble opinion the second greatest curse to any government is repudiation. Let North Carolina shun that rock, and, sir, she will do it unless driven into the vortex by interested parties who would gladly rise to office upon the ruins of their country. They are even now fanning the flames of repudiation for their own political preferment, and Nero-like, will laugh with fiendish delight at the conflagration though it carries with it the last hopes of our people. Delenda est carthago never fell from the lips of the Roman soldiery with deeper feelings of bitterness and hatred than would the doom of our greatness from the lips of these disappointed aspirants. Rule or ruin is their motto. Respect for the interest of the State is buried in oblivion, if that interest is an obstacle to the achievement of their own selfish objects. My people are an honest people—a brave people.—They are, and I hope ever will be, ready and willing to pay every debt which they have honestly contracted, and will spurn with contempt such a proposition unless driven to it by the rascality of those whom they have entrusted with the administration of their government.

Upon this floor it is the least of my wishes to be regarded in the light of a partisan. I come here in the interest of the whole people of the State. My highest ambition is to see the battle scarred brow of North Carolina reared as high in this grand sisterhood of States as any other in the Confederation. And sir, I take this occasion to declare that, whatever may be the sentiments of others, I am proud of those scars, which if they failed to secure the triumph of a cause, be the merits of that cause what they may, have thrown around it a halo which will grow brighter with the lapse of time, and a devotion to plighted faith which will be admired by the coming generations of mankind when the memory of many a triumphant cause will be buried in the rubbish of accumulated centuries.—And when I see men battling for the destruction of her honor I shall meet them upon the threshold and fight them with all the power with which Heaven has blessed me.

That my course will meet the views and wishes of all, I cannot expect. But, sir, I shall rest with entire satisfaction upon the verdict to be rendered by the honest people of the State. Their approving smiles are worth more to me than the satisfaction of any triumph here.

RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Nov. 25.—The Republican State Convention adopted an address to Congress today. It set forth that the election in Virginia was a Confederate triumph, achieved by intimidation and fraud; Republican meetings being in some instances broken up by mobs. That the true secret of the Republican defeat was the submission to a separate vote of the test oath and disfranchising clauses, which had been inserted in the constitution, according to the spirit of the reconstruction acts. That the Convention has the greatest confidence in the Reb bill anism and statesmanship of the President and a majority of Congress; but that they were deceived as to the true state of affairs in Virginia; that the present Legislature is disloyal and illegal and even if it ratifies the 15th amendment, will enact such educational and property qualifications as to entirely destroy the influences of colored suffrage and prevent colored voters from exercising or holding office or sitting in the jury box.

The address asks Congress to order a new election, with the Constitution submitted as a whole, and to send a military force sufficient to protect Republicans in their rights, or to require the test-oath of members of the Legislature and to award the seats of members unable to take it to those eligible opponents who have received the next highest vote.

There was a minority report by two of the committee.

The Convention passed resolutions endorsing Grants administration.

The Convention split, about thirty withdrawing, leaving Platte and Ayre, Republican members elect to Congress, Jenkins, chairman of their state Central Committee, and other prominent Republicans, who conceived they had not had fair play in the Convention.

These fellows will sign the minority address which favors the immediate admission of the state under certain guarantees, and forward it to Congress.

DR. LAWRENCE'S

Highly Concentrated Compound

FLUID EXTRACT OF

Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

NOT A SECRET QUACK MEDICINE—FORMULA AROUND THE BOTTLE.

Prepared Solely by

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.

ORGANIC CHEMIST,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 18, 1869.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Koskoo in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value; in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am sir, with much respect, your obedient servant,

R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

From Dr. Pentress, an accomplished and experienced physician.

Princess Anne Court House, Va., Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. Lawrence, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I fin it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public. Yours, truly;

T. F. PENTRESS, M. D.

Koskoo cures Scrofula in its worst forms. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well-known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from scrofula since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GREATLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a SPECIFIC for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also cured my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c., A. W. MILLS.

Koskoo, the Great Invigorator.—Read the following from the Rev. Joseph E. Martin, pastor of Wesley Chapel, Portsmouth, Va.:

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. For wiseo to taking it we were in a condition of debilitation—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator. Yours, &c.

JOSEPH E. MARTIN.

KOSKOO!

CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo is an INVALUABLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY CURES. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is incalculable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c., MRS M. E. A. NELSON.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored.

I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant, O. B. MEARS.

No. 5 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pactile, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Koskoo. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No 13 Market Square, Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23, 1869

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of Koskoo restored me to health.

Yours, truly, J. G. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

Portsmouth, Va., October 25, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his "Koskoo" with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression.

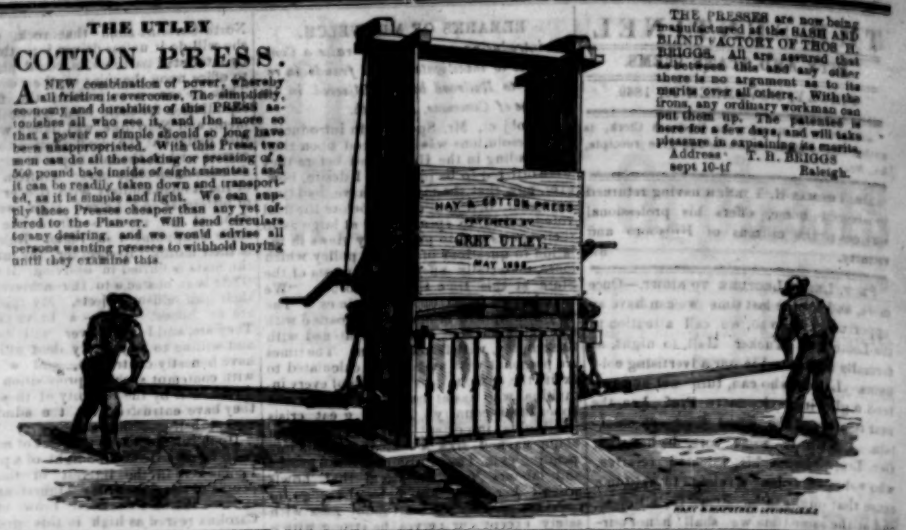
THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.



THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that in between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

Address T. H. BRIGGS Raleigh.

Amount of Assets $12,000,000.00.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $2,675,999.48,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

No.	15,273	$ 5,000

"	22,304	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 44,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1869. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

Knickerbocker,	$16,44
Equitable,	17,44
North America,	21,16
Brooklyn,	21,09
Universal,	27,24
John Hancock,	18,27
The National,	63,48
The Ætna,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Connecticut than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago in 1861 it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,237 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
